

To change present ownership rules to benefit big business is paramount to placing the First Amendment in the hands of "Enron". It is not in the public interest to allow mass ownership of broadcasting properties. Michael Powell has no knowledge or credentials to qualify him to make decisions pertaining to the broadcast spectrum. A father son power play and government nepotism. Attempting to "quietly" change legislation to circumvent public outcry is underhanded manipulation of the Democratic process. Can we not see the dangers of taking control of this countries' communication facilities from the masses and giving same to a few.
